An Incredible Year For The UNOH Men’s and Women’s Soccer Teams

To say that the 2014 men’s and women’s soccer seasons for the University of Northwestern Ohio were historic may not be taking it quite far enough. Both the men’s and women’s teams made deep runs into the NAIA National Tournaments, and considering the relative youth of the two teams, the tandem runs were completely unprecedented.

The Racers’ success on the field has been immediate, with neither team having experienced a season below the .500 mark in their brief histories, but both teams took the next step as a program this year. On the men’s side of the ledger, the Racers featured an explosive offense, and they enjoyed success despite a brutally difficult schedule. The slate included a road game at then #1 Lindsey Wilson College on September 21. The Racers won 2-1 and that effectively launched UNOH on a run that would see the Racers peak at #11 in the NAIA coaches’ poll. Despite a road setback to Davenport late in the year, the Racers locked up a Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference (WHAC) title with a 7-0 beating of Marygrove at home in the season finales.

UNOH advanced to the WHAC final with a pair of 2-1 wins. Despite a second loss to Davenport in the WHAC championship, the Racers earned a bid to their first ever NAIA Tournament. In the opening round, UNOH picked up a road 3-0 win at #11 Georgia Gwinnett College to earn a trip to the final site of the National Tournament. Once at the final site, the Racers had to overcome a pair of key injuries. But they advanced all the way to the National Semifinal where at the half, they were tied 1-1 with unbeaten and second-ranked Texas-Brownsville. Unfortunately for the Racers, an early second half goal proved to be the difference as the Ocelots ended UNOH’s Cinderella run with a 3-1 win.

As impressive as the men’s season was, the women’s campaign was even better. The Racers began the season by having to absorb a season-ending injury to their starting goalkeeper, but sophomore Nadine Stojek was ready for the challenge. After allowing three goals in their first two games, Stojek and the Racers rattled off an incredible streak of 12 straight shutouts that saw UNOH climb to the #6 spot in the rankings. Davenport ended the streak, as well as the Racers unbeaten streak – UNOH had opened the season with a 13-0-1 record – in the final game of October. The Racers bounced right back with another six match shutout streak extending through a 4-0 Opening Round Victory in the NAIA National Tournament at home against William Woods University.

Once at the final site in Orange Beach, Alabama, the Racers advanced to the quarterfinals with a 2-1 win over #16 The Master’s College, following that up with arguably their two most impressive wins of the season. In the quarterfinal, the Racers knocked off the defending National Champions - #2 Concordia University (Ore.) 1-0, and two days later, UNOH picked up their second win over a #1 ranked opponent of the year, downing #1 Embry-Riddle (Fla.) 1-0 in double-overtime. The shutout set a new NAIA single season record for shutouts with 20 - with both the team, and Stojek, claiming a spot in the record books. The win also advanced the Racers to the final, but in the title game, the Racers fell to #3 Lindsey Wilson College (Ky.) 3-0.

Never before in NAIA History had two teams within their first three seasons of existence both advance to the National Tournament Final Site.

2014 Oktoberfest

On October 29th, the annual UNOH Oktoberfest event was held at Club UNOH and the UNOH Event Center parking lot. The event boasted a large number of activities and giveaways for students to enjoy. Afternoon activities included a zip line, mechanical bull, cornhole and bobbing for apples outside of the Club with ping pong, pool, pumpkin painting, and a pie eating contest inside. Free Oktoberfest t-shirts were also given out for students to show off their autumn spirit! Later in the afternoon, students were treated to half-chicken dinners complete with a side of veggies and a dinner roll. Despite the cold weather that persisted throughout the day, hundreds of students came out to enjoy the day’s festivities, marking another successful Oktoberfest!

2014 Halloween Dance

The annual UNOH Halloween Dance continued the events of Oktoberfest, being held later in the night. Unlike previous years where the dance was held in Club UNOH, it was instead held in the Presidential Hall of the UNOH Event Center. The change in scenery provided students with more room and the stage in the Presidential Hall allowed the DJ, DJ Drew Fox, to have a unique setup. DJ Drew Fox set up a camera at the front of the stage which projected a live feed of the dancing students to a screen. Moving the dance to the Presidential Hall turned out to be wildly successful and will now be the home to all Halloween dances in the future!

On Thanksgiving Day, students that were unable to travel home for Thanksgiving were treated to a Thanksgiving Dinner complete with all of the trimmings at Club UNOH. Ten UNOH staff volunteers arrived at Club UNOH on Thanksgiving morning to serve the Thanksgiving meal. The dinner consisted of turkey, green beans, mashed potatoes & gravy, and dinner rolls. For dessert, students were treated to pumpkin pie with whipped cream. In all, about 20 students showed up to take part in the meal. This was another great year with a great turnout for the Thanksgiving meal and we look forward to continuing the tradition next year!
