Konnor Waterhouse - Kyle Ketz '22 Memorial Scholarship Recipient

In August of 2023, Kyle tragically lost his life in a car accident. Family, friends and UNOH classmates have come together to keep his memory alive.

Each month, we are featuring one of the scholarship recipients.

Konnor is from Cerro Gordo, Illinois. He was an outstanding student and athlete in high school earning high honors and many awards. He even took home top honors as student of the year in his high school automotive program. Konnor grew up loving Monster Trucks and attending Monster Jam shows. As he grew up, his goal became to make that a career someday. After learning about the programs offered at UNOH, He knew this was the place to go to chase his dreams. Konnor continues to do well in his classes at UNOH while also working as a Parts Runner on campus.

“My family and I are incredibly grateful for this scholarship as money is tight with our large family,” explains Konner. “This school has been so good to me, and I am really enjoying it here.”
