ALUMNI SPOTLIGHTS

UNOH graduate Cory Fostvedt '05 has built an impressive career in Dirt Late Model racing, now serving as crew chief for Jonathan Davenport at Double L Motorsports.

Since stepping into the role in 2023, Fostvedt has guided the team to 37 wins, ranking him among the top crew chiefs in the nation. His leadership style—built on trust, teamwork, and experience that traces back to his days studying High Performance Motorsports at UNOH—has earned him respect throughout the racing community.

DANIEL SANCHEZ '20

UNOH alumnus Daniel Sanchez '20 has turned his passion for motorsports into a thriving marketing career.

As a student, he won championships at Limaland and led the UNOH American Marketing Association chapter to national recognition.

Today, as Marketing Manager at Five Star Bodies, he travels the country supporting the racing industry while continuing to compete in his UMP Modified.

You can follow him on social media: Daniel Sanchez Racing.

UNOH graduate Dylan Murray '18 & '20 has turned his education into a career at the highest levels of motorsports.

After earning both his associate degree in Automotive High Performance and his bachelor's degree in Automotive Technical Supervision from UNOH, Murray gained experience across nearly every level of sports car racing before joining AJ Foyt Racing in 2024.

Today, he serves as a rear-end mechanic and inside rear tire changer on the No. 14 Chevy driven by Santino Ferrucci in the NTT INDYCAR Series.

Murray says he first realized he could build a career in racing when a UNOH recruiter visited his high school, sparking a journey that led him from dirt ovals at Limaland to the famed Indianapolis 500.

DR. REBEKAH SLAGLE, MBA '21

UNOH alumna Dr. Rebekah Slagle has joined MidWest Ohio Dental Care in Sidney, OH, bringing her passion for patient care back to her small-town roots.

While earning her MBA at UNOH, Slagle served as a graduate assistant for the volleyball team, continuing to participate in the sport she loves.

Slagle says she her care style is dedicated to treating the whole person—restoring smiles, relieving pain, and building lasting relationships with patients.

Now living in Sidney with her husband and golden retriever named Oliver, Slagle is excited to serve her community and give back close to home.
